THE OHIO ASSOCIATION OF VETERINARY TECHNICIANS OUTSTANDING VETERINARY TECHNICIAN AWARD

About the Award:

Each year the award would be given to honor the Registered Veterinary Technician who, in the judgment of fellow peers, has significantly contributed to the profession of Veterinary Technician and animal care. The award will consist of an award plaque with the presentation being made at the Midwest Veterinary Conference in February.

Nominees should be selected from each local association.

The judges will be the past recipients of the award.

Criteria for award evaluation:

- 1) OAVT MEMBERSHIP – for the year of nomination
- 2) Professional experience
- 3) State and local animal care activities
- 4) Contributions to Technician advancement
- 5) Published materials, project presentations and awards
- 6) At least two letters of recommendation to accompany nomination

The local association submitting the nomination should included a brief summary of why they feel this individual should receive the recognition award. This summary would accompany the entry information sent by the local association to the judges' panel.

To be submitted prior to December 31
